

Sin City Chamber is Attracting Hollywood and New York New Productions will Showcase the Best of Las Vegas to the World

Las Vegas, NV. December 6, 2006: The Sin City Chamber of Commerce (www.sincitychamberofcommerce.com) is proud to announce two new joint efforts to bring a little bit of Sin City to the world via Hollywood and New York. The Sin City Chamber of Commerce is working with both TorchLight Entertainment on a new Cinemax/HBO Series and with Fredric Golding Productions who is seeking Las Vegas Locals who will represent the "fastest growing" city in the United States for Match.com Documentary.

Amber Smith - Originally from Tampa, Florida; "one of the 50 sexiest women in the world" by Maxim Magazine. As well as British G.O.'s "Eight most erotic women in the world."

Earlier this week, the Sin City Chamber of Commerce was asked to be the Location Consultant for a new TorchLight Entertainment Series entitled "Sin City Diaries™." Producer John Quinn the Executive Producer and owner of Sin City Diaries, LLC requested the Sin City Chamber to help find local night clubs, gentlemen's clubs, restaurants and other locations from the Sin City Chamber Membership to appear in this new series which premieres Spring 2007 on Cinemax.

"This is incredibly exciting for the Sin City Chamber Commerce and our members. It will be a wonderful learning and collaborative process, as well as, bringing a world wide audience to Sin City. We will help provide a magnificent backdrop for a truly unique and very sexy series. The neon lights of Sin City have a million untold stories and I think by now our Chamber has quite a few of our own" commented Michael Russell, Executive Vice President.

The "Sin City Diaries™" will follow concierge expert Angelica (played by actress and super model Amber Smith, LA Confidential - American Beauty.) From her high-rise office overlooking the Strip, Casino Owners rely heavily upon her to make their high rollers happy. As she helps clients live out their deepest fantasies in this playground and paradise we all know and love as Sin City.

The Sin City Chamber of Commerce will also be working with NYC Production Company, Fredric Golding Productions. The Sin City Chamber of Commerce will help market the need for select individuals who will represent Las Vegas in the United States for Match.com Documentary. Potential participants do not have to be Match.com members. The films are part of Match.com's recent venture into web casting and will broadcast early 2007 on the Match.com website.

The following is a description of the types of individuals sought in Las Vegas, NV:

Heterosexual SINGLES (divorcees and single parents included), Men and Women (28 – 55) working in the construction, development, real estate, gentleman's club or casino professions that are looking for a committed relationship.

Heterosexual COUPLES (28 – 55) working in the construction, development, real estate, gentleman's clubs or casino professions that are in a committed relationship. For more information, please contact FG Productions @ 212-674-3100 x1388 or casting@figprod.com or the Sin City Chamber of Commerce at info@sincitychamberofcommerce.com .