

2007 Sin City Chamber Advisory Council Announced

Mix of Mainstream Businesses Volunteer to Focus on Growth of Vibrant Community

Las Vegas, NV - January 2, 2006 - The Sin City Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce the new 2007 Sin City Chamber Advisory Council Members and Officers. The Sin City Chamber Advisory Council is made up of Sin City Chamber Members that volunteer to support the chamber and provided needed feedback as we move forward and grow.

"We are sure to double the number of members before the end of 2007; so I have asked my fellow Advisory Council Members to commit time and resources to making the Sin City Chamber continue its focus on growth and member benefits" commented Erik Moll, Residential Mortgage Services and Chairman of the Sin City Chamber Advisory Council. "As Council Members, we will be very visible at upcoming events; volunteering and acting as information officers for new and potential members. The Sin City Chamber of Commerce has built its reputation on creating fun networking events and making everyone feel welcome. As Chairman, I look forward to meeting many new faces in 2007 and helping this Las Vegas Chamber grow."

Returning as Advisory Council Officers from 2006 are Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and Secretary, Erik Moll of Residential Mortgage Services, Erika Napoletano of Diamond Bay Investments, and Jaye Pellegrini of A Shade Above, respectively. "It was felt that these three individuals exceeded our expectations in 2006 and we were very proud that they agreed to return in their respective roles to help the Sin City Chamber of Commerce move forward" commented Wayne Bridge, CEO.

The Sin City Chamber Council Members will help the Chamber organize events, greet new members and help members get the most out of the Sin City Chamber. Council Members will also be instrumental in helping us increase our Event Sponsorships, which will raise donations for our Philanthropic endeavors. Advisory Council Members also play a unique role in deciding the winners of the 2007 Sin City Chamber Business Awards as Council Members will vote in the final tally process which is submitted to the Executive Staff for the final decision.
