

Jonathan Remund steps in as Chairman of the Sin City Technology Alliance

"SCTA Will be A Catalyst for Future Success"

May 9, 2007 - Las Vegas, NV: The Sin City Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce that Jonathan Remund has agreed to become the new Chairman of the Sin City Technology Alliance. Jonathan and his company Bizwala, Inc. has been a long time supporter of the Sin City Chamber and has helped us on numerous occasions even cooking up the hamburgers at the Chicken Ranch BBQ. His dedication and support of the Chamber and now of the SCTA is appreciated and we look forward to some great things from him.

"I am very honored to accept the role as Chairman of the Sin City Technology Alliance" commented Jonathan Remund. "I see this alliance as the preeminent tech group in the Valley and we will work hard to build relationships that complement the product and service offerings that we individually have. Forming relationships through the SCTA will be a catalyst for future success."

Jonathan takes over for Joe Russo of Reliant Web & Program Services who stepped down as the acting Chairman of the Sin City Technology Alliance earlier this week. Joe, will remain on the Alliance and serve on the Advisory Council, as well as, sponsor an event or two this year. We thank him for his contribution and look forward to his continued support.
